Snippet from Wikipedia: Tuleap

Tuleap is an application lifecycle management system which facilitates agile software development, design projects, V-model, Requirement Management, and IT Services Management. It is open source, released under the GNU General Public License, version 2.

Tuleap is an enterprise alternative to proprietary tools like CollabNet, Jira (and the Atlassian Suite) and Confluence, and Crucible.

The software is developed and maintained by Enalean, a French tech company founded in 2011 and headquartered in France.
